SOVIETS CLAIM VICTORY IN TANK BATTLE

Allied Air Blows Turn Back Dobo-Bound Axis Convoy

Over 32 Villages Fall To Reds On The Central Front

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Soviet headquarters claimed victory over the Germans today in a giant tank battle for control of the Donets river valley below Kharkov, while on the central front the Red armies swept into more than 32 towns and villages in their drive toward the Nazi keystone fortress at Smolensk.

Dispatches from the Donets sector reported that tank-led Soviet troops, rallying after their retreat from Kharkov, destroyed a force of German tanks and trucks and then stormed an enemy-occupied village where 200 Nazis were killed.

In the north, Soviet columns rolling triumphantly westward beyond the upper Dnieper river were reported to have battered another wedge into German defenses on the distant approaches to Smolensk, capturing the rail station of Igorievskaya and the district center of Vskhody.

German Artillery Opens Up on British Eighth Army in Mendenine Sector

RAIN RETARDS ACTIONS

London, March 17.—(AP)—DNE, in a Berlin broadcast heard here today by Reuters said that the British Eighth Army had launched an attack on the Mareth Line last night. "The scale of fighting cannot be judged by reports so far available, but Berlin quarters believe this is a major attack," DNE said.

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, March 17.—(AP)—A mighty Allied air striking force blasted another Axis convoy in the Sicilian Straits, attacked an airfield near Gabes and pounded Marshal Rommel's dug-in positions in the Mareth Line, it was announced today.

German artillery opened up on the British Eighth Army deployed before the French-built fortifications in the Mendenine sector and Allied patrols were active along the whole southern front, an Allied communiqué said.

The continued plague of bad weather restricted flying in central and north Tunisia.

Heavy rain beat upon the north, but British First Army patrols ventured out inflicting casualties. North of the Gafsa oasis in the center, contact was made with some enemy tanks, but the result was not specified.

Bombers attacked an Axis airfield and the railway near the east coast port of Gabes.

Kiska Target Of New Raids

Washington, March 17.—(AP)—The heaviest series of air attacks ever made on a Japanese-held Kiska island in a single day was carried out Monday, the navy announced today, when American planes raided the Aleutians base six times between dawn and dusk.

In the south Pacific, meanwhile, light naval surface forces bombarded Japanese positions at Vila in the Munda airbase area of the central Solomon Islands. This was the third time that American warships have penetrated into the enemy sector of the Solomons to bomb shore positions at or near Munda.

PLAN SOUGHT TO FINANCE WAGE BOOST

New Taxes Ruled Out as Method of Raising Funds to Hike Teachers' Pay

STALEMATE REACHED

Harrisburg, March 17.—(P)—Governor Martin said today he was opposed to any new taxes to finance a proposed $26,000,000 cost-of-living salary increase for Pennsylvania's 63,000 school teachers during the next two years.

"I think the legislature by amending certain laws, cutting certain appropriations and proposed payments to teachers can make the budget balance," the executive told a press conference.

"I'm going to work every possible avenue before suggesting imposing any new tax or retaining the state personal property or mercantile taxes which I recommended be eliminated."

A Republican majority bill pending in the legislature calls for pay increases for teachers ranging from $200 to $800 annually.

First suggestions for financing the increase eluded enactment of a two per cent sales tax or levies on amusement, admission and soft drinks. Martin first estimated the cost at $20,000,000 but said some legislators figure it will be $26,000,000.

As Governor Martin studied the problem, the house GOP majority voted down 127-76 a Democratic move to limit his authority over proposed post-war planning commission.

Final Vote Is Near On Farm Labor Issue

Washington, March 17.—(P)—After five days of debate, the senate headed toward a final vote today on the Bankhead bill to stop the draft of farm workers into the armed forces.

Under a unanimous consent agreement reached yesterday, all amendments and substitutes are to be voted on starting at 2:30 p. m., with a final roll call expected soon afterward.

The more than 40 signed sponsors of the measure, offered several weeks ago by Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) to relieve what was termed a serious farm labor shortage, predicted it would pass easily despite opposition protests of "class legislation."

The measure provides for virtual blanket deferment of all farm workers, the only limiting factor being a wide discretion given to the secretary of agriculture that they must be engaged in production of "essential" commodities.

Before voting on the bill itself, the senate was confronted with a substitute proposed by Senator (D-Fla.) to establish a program for maximum mobilization of manpower for the military forces and for military and essential civilian production.

Irish Spend Holiday In a Quiet Manner

Dublin, March 17.—(P)—It was an austere Saint Patrick's day in Eire and the quietest in the memory of oldsters who recall the great festivities formerly attending this patron saint day.

Sobered by the war raging around them and affected by attendant shortages and hardships, the neutral Irish either spent the holiday quietly at home, strolling along the streets or attending football matches. There were no political demonstrations, no rallies, no parades. Even the pubs were closed.

Highlight of the day will be the broadcast by Prime Minister Eamon De Valera at 10:00 p. m. (5:00 p. m., E.W.T.)

Measure To Discourage Absenteeism

Legislation to Tighten Selective Service Act is Approved

TO CHECK WORKERS

Washington, March 17.—(P)—A measure aimed at curbing absenteeism among war plant workers was approved, 19 to 7, today by the house naval committee.

The measure, revised in executive session, would:

1. Tighten the selective service act to provide that an employer seeking deferment of an essential worker furnish draft boards with a record of how many times the worker was absent from his job.
2. Require the war, navy and merchant marine departments and all war contractors to supply the Department of Labor with the names of all workers absent from work without prior authorization.
3. Require any deferment or continuation of deferment from being granted for a period of more than six months.

Rep. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) said the clause requiring employers to furnish local boards with the absentee records of their essential employees would enable the boards to determine whether able-bodied, draft-age men, who take unjustified holidays from their jobs, should continue to be deferred from the armed services.

It also would provide the labor department a method of collecting data on absenteeism among other war workers not subject to the draft. That information, said Johnson, would give congress information on which it could act to correct such contributing factors as bad housing, inadequate transportation and poor working conditions.

The measure provides for virtual blanket deferment of all farm workers, the only limiting factor being a wide discretion given to the secretary of agriculture that they must be engaged in production of "essential" commodities.

RUMI PLAN SUPPORTERS ARE HOPEFUL

New Confidence Voiced by Adherents as Stormy Tax Battle Seems Certain

BILL IS REPORTED OUT

Washington, March 17.—(P)—New confidence was voiced by supporters of the Rumi income tax plan today as the house made ready for one of its stormiest tax battles in history.

Republicans tightened their alignment behind the skip-a-year proposal, while Democrats dug in for a finish battle behind a tax collection system that provides no abatement, as approved by the house ways and means committee.

The committee reported out a bill yesterday, after two months of work, providing a 20 per cent withholding levy against the taxable portions of wages and salaries, effective July 1, and making pay-as-you-go optional for any taxpayer who elects to "double-up" by paying off two year's taxes within one year.

To induce individuals to go on a current (pay-as-you-go) basis, the committee voted a six per cent "bargain" discount on any part of taxes on 1943 income paid before June 15, after 1942 taxes have been paid.

Speaker Rayburn said the committee bill probably would be brought into the house next Monday and would be devoted for a week. Supporters of the Rumi plan use, and ferryboats—today were "frozen" in their present service.

The Office of Defense Transportation described the order as designed to protect the requirements of war works and school children by preventing the transfer of vehicles from communities where they are needed.

All federal agencies, including the army and navy, are required to file reports on their transportation-carrying equipment. In addition, these agencies are forbidden to buy, lease or requisition such equipment without ODT approval.

An immediate effect of the action, ODT said, will be to stop a "black market" in school buses. School officials asked for the "freeze" reporting that many contract operators already had shifted their buses to other uses.

The order permits an operator to take on additional service, such as using a school bus to transport war workers, so long as he does not discontinue the school service.

Regular transportation companies may shift equipment from one route to another, but cannot shift it to serve routes of another company.

SEVERAL FIRMS AND INDUSTRIES PASS THEIR QUOTAS IN FUND DRIVE

Speculation on the progress of the Red Cross War Fund Campaign elicited little comment at headquarters this afternoon. Rain on the opening day slowed up calls in the residential district to some extent. Today's favorable weather indicated that the tempo had picked up considerably.

Interest in tomorrow night's report meeting, to be held at the Y. W. C. A. activities building at 7:15, was heightened by the announcement that several firms and industries had passed their quotas.

No word on the total sum of the first two days was available, but it is believed that when the workers meet tomorrow evening there will be ample evidence that the goal of $32,000 can and will be reached.

Headquarters had evidence this afternoon that the business section was being thoroughly canvassed, though calls in this section are by no means complete. Appearance of 100% posters in many offices and stores show that many firms are reporting all of their personnel subscribing to the War Fund.

Mrs. E. G. Hamilton urges that all residential workers complete their calls Thursday if possible and hand in reports for their areas tomorrow evening. County workers who can be present tomorrow night are urged to make reports insofar as possible. Any workers in outlying territories who cannot attend tomorrow night's meeting are to call Campaign Headquarters (2536) by 4:30 Thursday afternoon.

All Transport Vacations As Cars Frozen Usual Urged By ODT Chief

Pittsburgh, Mar. 17.—(P)—No restrictions on vacation travel are contemplated by the Office of Defense Transportation, Director Joseph B. Eastman said today, as he expressed the hope that rationing of rail transportation would not be necessary.

Here to address the Allegheny Regional Advisory Board of Railroads, the ODT chief said at a press conference that he didn't want to discourage vacations because he felt they were "very necessary." He hopes to take one himself, he added with a smile.

He appealed to business firms to spread vacations over several months so that not too many people will be traveling at any one time. He also advised vacations to start and end their trips during the week instead of over weekends.

All federal agencies, including the army and navy, are required to file reports on their transportation-carrying equipment. In addition, these agencies are forbidden to buy, lease or requisition such equipment without ODT approval.

Activities in Developing Battle of Island Fringes Of Australia Intensified

TWO SHIPS DAMAGED

Allied Headquarters in Australia, March 17.—(P)—Allied planes struck widely at enemy sea transport and bases yesterday in the developing battle of the island fringes around Australia where the Japanese are reported concentrating troops.

General MacArthur's airmen seeking to finish off a three-ship Japanese troop convoy which was attacked the previous day while headed for Dobo, in the Aroe Islands, 500 miles north of Darwin, reported, however, they could find no trace of the vessels in a search of the west coast of the Aroes and the south coast of New Guinea.

"We don't know where the convoy went, but it didn't reach Dobo," a headquarters spokesman said.

Two of the ships in the convoy previously had been reported heavily damaged by direct bomb hits and severe casualties were said to have been inflicted on enemy troops crowding the decks.

Allied headquarters made no claim that the vessels had been sunk, and the failure of reconnaissance planes to find any debris yesterday gave no evidence to support such a claim.

While the search for the convoy was pressed, Allied medium bombers had scored hits on attacks on Dobo, scoring hits on barracks, tents and a radio station, today's communiqué said. Three luggers also were reported bombed and sunk near Wokam, a small island in the Dobo area.

Heavy bombers dodged a hail of anti-aircraft fire to attack three medium-sized Japanese merchant ships off the Cape Vandenbusch, Dutch New Guinea, but were unable to observe the results of their work, the communiqué said.

A-20 Havoc attack-bombers lived up to their name in a tree-top raid on the Japanese base at Salamaua, New Guinea, setting four fires among the enemy's dwindling fuel supply. The fires were later observed to have merged into a single conflagration visible 20 miles away.

A lone Flying Fortress on reconnaissance over Ubihi, New Britain, drove off an attack by a twin-engine enemy bomber and shot it flaming and exploding into the sea, the communiqué said.

There was no mention of losses to Allied planes.

Ouster Bill In the House

Harrisburg, March 17.—(P)—A bill to remove Democratic utility commissioner Richard J. Beamish from office when his term expires, March 31, has been approved by the senate 28-14 and sent to the house. Beamish's commission provides that he serve until his successor is appointed and qualified.

Governor Martin several weeks ago nominated Dr. Frank Parker, University of Pennsylvania professor, to succeed the commissioner but withdrew the nomination at Parker's request after senate Democrats challenged the professor's qualifications. Martin has yet to submit another name.

The removal bill drew heated Democratic objections with Senator Elmer J. Holland (D-Alleg.) asking if the measure is "an attempt to by-pass the people's representatives and pave the way for an interim appointment."

Senator Dent emphasized he was particularly concerned about "rationing" program, which resulted from lack of foresight of the Liquor Control Board.

Reading Man To Keep Tryst With Spirit of His Friend

Reading, March 17.—(P)—Shure tunes over by grave on St. Patrick's night. But if you die I'll keep the grass forever green over your grave and put a shamrock there every year.

Hannahoe died a short time later, and Schaeffer has never broken the agreement.

Tonight, he said, there will be not one but four Alvah Schaeffers on Neversink mountain—his son, grandson and great-grandson as well as himself.

Schaeffer is too old now to play the cornet himself, but a quartet of friends will do it for him. And thousands of curious again will line the edges of the cemetery, waiting and listening, at respectful distance.

Opening To Mark Arrival Of Gay Spring

The Metzger-Wright Company invites its many friends to the annual spring opening from 7:30 to 9:30 this evening.

Forty-seven years ago this company opened its doors on the first spring opening and since then the occasion has become one to which many friends look forward as an evening when they can visit each department of the store and see the very latest in spring fashions for their home, their family and themselves.

Nothing is sold on this spring opening evening. It is a special occasion when the management and employees of the store may mingle with the guests and enjoy the evening with them.

All have been working hard to make the displays, both in their departments and in the windows, the most outstanding of any of the previous years despite the conditions of the day. It is hoped that a large number of their friends will take advantage of this "open house" to visit this store this evening.

Elk Member Forty Years Is Honored

The highlight of the semi-monthly meeting of the Warren lodge of Elks held last evening with a large crowd in attendance was the presentation of a life membership to Edward T. Beck, street commissioner of Warren borough, who has rounded out forty years as a member of the order. Mr. Beck was initiated into the lodge March 3, 1903, during the administration of H. W. Baker as exalted ruler, and it was somewhat of a coincidence that the presentation was made by H. D. Baker holding the same office.

During the business session officers were elected for the coming year starting the first Tuesday in April, as follows: Delbert Lewis, exalted ruler; leading knight, H. J. Harvey; loyal knight, John Smallman; lecturing knight, C. Ted Berdine; tiler, Charles Kirchartz; secretary, E. C. Lynch; treasurer, E. M. Branch; trustee for three years, P. C. Ostergard; representative to grand lodge convention, H. J. Harvey, alternate P. E. Nelson.

Announcement was made that the new officers will be installed by District Deputy Bert Burns, of Reynoldsville, Tuesday evening, April 6th. He will be assisted by past exalted rulers of Warren lodge.

It was voted to make the usual donation to the Red Cross War Fund.

Following the meeting a social time was enjoyed.

Hobby Show Won Attention Of Boy Scouts

In a special board of review conducted in conjunction with the regular meeting of Troop 12, Boy Scouts of the First Lutheran church, Bill Yeager was passed on merit badge work for first aid and pathfinding.

The review panel included F. R. Hoff, representing the Warren County Council; Edward Laufenberger, assistant Scoutmaster of the troop; Leo Gleese and Charles Cable, of the troop committee.

Particularly interesting in the hobby show exhibits brought to the meeting was the collection of tropical fish entered by Scout Rowell Hoff. Visitors to the meeting were Ed Davis, neighborhood commissioner, and Mel Carlson, of St. Paul's troop.

Scoutmaster Ronald Stover conducted a games period and outlined the advancement program.

Another change added tires that fit a 17-inch rim to the "obsolete" list—those obtainable by anyone eligible for a B or better book, even though they may only have an A book. All tires, however, still must be obtained with local ration board certificates.

Kinzua Girl Scouts Held Anniversary

Kinzua, March 16—Nine years ago Miss Gertrude White organized the first troop of Girl Scouts in Kinzua, with a committee composed of Mrs. W. Boyd English, Mrs. A. W. Gibson and Miss Laura K. Smutz. Last Thursday evening the Scouts of troop 9 entertained their mothers at a tureen dinner in the school house at 6:30 p. m. There were thirty-two mothers and daughters seated at one long table.

Following the delicious dinner, Miss White called on Dorothy Holt a member of Troop 9 who welcomed the mothers in behalf of the troop, to which Mrs. Walter Quiggle, a member of the Scout Committee, responded. Mrs. Louise Mann, spoke for the school faculty and Mrs. H. L. Thompson spoke in behalf of the School Board, after which all joined in singing old time songs, words of which were found in the place cards at the table. Mrs. Doris Byrnes accompanied the songs at the piano.

One member of the original troop and one member of the first Scout committee, Miriam English and her mother, were present. Two other members of the first troop but who joined six months after the organization were also present, they were Dorothy Fogle and Mary Ann Fitzgerald.

Through out the nine years, Miss Gertrude White has been the leader of all these girls and has given generously of her time and means to make scouting interesting and all those present at the dinner are indebted to Miss White for her untiring efforts with the girls as well as the success of the dinner.

Personal Paragraphs

Schoolmen here will be sorry to learn that George A. Persell, former superintendent of Jamestown schools, is ill in the W. C. A. Hospital.

Believed to be among the authentic "firsts" of the spring season is the nice row of crocuses just sighted along the west side of Dr. Elizabeth Beatty's house in Pennsylvania avenue, west.

Friends who recall when Janet Putnam sang in Grace Methodist church choir, and frequently was heard as harp soloist were interested in the news that she had a prominent solo part in Philadelphia last Sunday night when the First Baptist choir sang Cesar Franck's "Mass in A". Also a soloist was George Lapham, tenor, heard here in a Warren Concert Association recital two years ago.

William E. Yeager will be in Elizabethtown on Friday and Saturday of this week attending a meeting of the Masonic Homes committee.

Miss Ruth Gibson, 105 North Carver street, has returned from a week's vacation at Langley Field, Va., with her brother, Pvt. Ed Dobson, who was given a three-day pass to accompany her home.

Knut Y. Naslin, of Warren, private at the army air base at Reno, Nev., is one of the over-38 years of age group to be granted honorable discharges by the War Department.

Mrs. George Almendinger, who has been ill for the past week at her home in Starbrick, is reported still confined to her bed.

Lt. and Mrs. William H. Smith stopped in Warren Tuesday en route to Norfolk, Va., the former enjoying a furlough before assignment for foreign duty. Before enlisting in the navy, Lt. Smith was located here as district forester for the State Department of Forests and Waters. Mrs. Smith expects to return some time this summer for a visit with Warren friends.

Ezra Grubbs, pneumonia patient in Warren General Hospital since January 31, is reported recovering nicely and will soon be removed to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lyald Hansen, at Stoneham, where he will stay until able to be about again. He is most appreciative of flowers, cards and other kindnesses shown him during his illness. Norma Taylor and Darwin Grubbs, here since their father became ill, have returned to their home in Ohio, taking Helen Grubbs with them.

Pre-Induction Social To Be Held Thursday

All selectees of Draft Boards No. 1 and 2, who have been notified to go to Erie for final examinations next week, are cordially invited to participate in the Pre-Induction meeting and social to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building Thursday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock. Every man in the March group of selectees is privileged to attend whether he receives an invitation in the mail or not.

This is the third in the series of Pre-Induction meetings conducted by the Y. M. C. A., with the cooperation of a number of other community agencies and organizations. This month the Young Women's Christian Association has accepted responsibility for preparing and serving the light luncheon which features the social phase of the program.

Dr. H. A. Bengs, of the State Hospital staff, will give the one talk of the occasion, in which he will offer many helpful suggestions to aid the selectee in making the many adjustments to life in the service. This presentation will also help the selectees to prepare themselves for the final examination experience.

An important phase of the meeting is the question-and-answer period. Selectees have dozens of questions for which they seek answers. None of these are too insignificant to deal with in this meeting, which is designed to be of utmost helpfulness to the man who is facing his examination and induction experience. Several men in position to be of help in answering these questions will be present, including Montgomery McClure who has been all through the induction and preliminary training experiences.

All that is asked of the Selectee is that he give the evening, for which he will be well repaid in preparation for that which lies immediately before him.

Police Will Discuss Juvenile Delinquency at Corry Meet

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, recently announced that juvenile delinquency and crime among boys and girls not yet twenty-one years of age has increased. This problem, together with that of obtaining compliance with the Selective Service Act, will receive the attention of law enforcement agencies in this area who are to convene in Corry, Pa., on March 18, 1943. One of the new regulations to be discussed is the requirement that all men liable for training in service under the Selective Service Act for a period of six months are required to carry their classification as well as registration cards. The following program has been scheduled for the FBI quarterly police conference to be held under the Law Enforcement Officers Mobilization Plan for national defense at this conference.

J. Lloyd Mahony will discuss "What the Public Expects of a Police Officer." Mr. Mahony is assistant professor of finance and head of the Erie center of the University of Pittsburgh at Erie, Pa.

Films relating to law enforcement, fighting on present battlefronts, and other unreleased subjects will supplement lectures and instruction on national and local problems of law enforcement pertinent to national defense by Chief of Police John D. Flanagan and representatives of the Pennsylvania Motor Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

J. E. Thornton, special agent in charge of the Pittsburgh FBI office will lead a discussion on objectives in internal security matters.

The meeting to be held at the Corry Senior High School in Corry, will start at 1:00 p. m. and the officers will be welcomed by Chief of Police Flanagan and Mayor Frank E. Hepler.

Warren will be represented at the meeting by Sheriff William Stuart, of the county, and Chief of Police George Haehn and Lieutenants M. Evan and Gordon Munn.

Coming Lecturer Author of One of Latest Best Sellers

Colonel Carlos P. Romulo has given us one of the valid and most moving books of this war in his recent book, "I Saw the Fall of the Philippines." It was placed on the public library's shelves immediately after publication and has been in circulation ever since that time.

Undoubtedly the demand for it has increased since the announcement that General MacArthur's long close friend and aide de camp, its author, was to appear in Warren on the Y. M. C. A. lecture forum platform Friday evening of this week. But it is mainly the honest, graphic quality of the book itself which has recommended it from one reader to another. If he speaks as well as he writes, a truly unusual treat is in store for the people of Warren. Certainly he spoke convincingly to his own people for the Japanese placed a price on his head in revenge for his effective broadcasts over the Voice of Freedom radio station on Corregidor.

A Pulitzer Prize-winning Filipino journalist and editor of a Philippine newspaper chain, Colonel Romulo has command of a vivid English necessary for the telling of a great story. W. L. White, author of "They Were Expendable," voted as the best war book of 1942, placed "I Saw the Fall of the Philippines" at the top of the list. As people have read this book they have commented that it is in itself justification for the decision of General MacArthur to bring him out on the last plane off Bataan at all costs. For it should awaken many Americans to the kind of no-quarter fight we are up against in the Pacific. It brings home the heartbreaks of the lost battles of the Philippines as movingly as "They Were Expendable" did but in a very different fashion. His story deserves to be widely read and heard if only that Americans may appreciate how their Filipino friends stood by them in the hour of defeat.

Many splendid books, intelligently conceived and written, have appeared on the library's shelves since the beginning of this war—far surpassing in perspective those of the last World War. But this book is, as Frank S. Adams says, "one of the saddest and the best of the war books," one no thoughtful American should miss.

The expectation of life for a child born in England today is 13 years longer than that of a child born in 1901.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1943

"FILE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE"
(From the Publishers' Auxiliary)

It was just about a year ago that we printed an editorial under the above head, in which we reprinted an editorial that appeared originally in the Milwaukee Journal in September, 1940. In the light of recent events in Europe and certain repercussions in this country, we feel that it's appropriate to reprint it again. So here it is:

WHY WE HAVE CONSCRIPTION

"Germany has neither the wish nor the intention to mix in internal Austrian affairs or to annex or unite with Austria." —Hitler to the Reichstag, May 21, 1935.

March 11, 1938, Hitler took possession of Austria. "This (the Sudetenland) is the last territorial demand I have to make in Europe... I further assured him (Chamberlain) and I repeat here that if this problem is solved there will be no further territorial problems in Europe for Germany... I give him the guarantee: We do not want any Czechs." —Hitler to the world in the Berlin Sportsplatz, September 26, 1938.

March 15, 1939, Hitler entered Prague, signaling the end of Czechoslovakia.

"We (Germany and Poland) succeeded in arriving at an agreement which for the duration of 10 years basically removes the danger of any clash... We are two peoples. They shall live. One cannot annihilate the other." —Hitler to the world in the Berlin Sportsplatz, September 26, 1938.

September 1, 1939, Poland was invaded, Warsaw was blasted from the face of the earth, and the country was wiped off the map.

"The German Reich and the kingdom of Denmark will under no circumstances resort to war or any other form of violence against each other." —Article 1 of peace pact signed in Berlin, May 31, 1939.

April 9, 1940, Hitler's Nazis entered Denmark and began looting the country of supplies.

"In the spirit long existing of good German-Norwegian relations the Reich government notifies the Norwegian government that she has no intention through her measures, now or in the future, of infringing upon the territorial integrity or the political independence of the kingdom of Norway." —From Berlin, April 9, 1940.

April 9, 1940, at 3 a. m. Hitler's troops invaded Norway. "We are ready to acknowledge and guarantee these states (Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg) at all times as inviolable neutral territory." —Hitler to the Reichstag, January 30, 1937.

May 10, 1940, Hitler invaded Luxembourg, Belgium and Holland, leveling Rotterdam.

"Germany has no territorial possessions in the American continent and has given no occasion whatever for the assumption that she intends to acquire such possessions." —Hitler, July 5, 1940.

And that's why this country has conscription—to make sure that Herr Hitler continues to have no intention of acquiring possessions in the American continent.

In reprinting the above last year we offered this comment:

The Auxiliary suggests that you clip the above and save it. It may be useful to have some time in the future when, as and if your faint-hearts or "summer patriots" (and it will be surprising if you don't find one or two in every community) begin whispering that the war is "bound to end in a stalemate" and that we'd better make a compromise peace with Adolf and his fellow-gangsters.

We believe that suggestion is still valid.

Down at Oil City a total of 21 men, including one from Warren, are now unaccounted for in the North African war theatre. In the face of distressing news of this character, you cannot fail to do your part to help put across the local Red Cross War Fund drive.

Wear out your old shirts now. It soon will be time to leave off the coat and vest.

St. Patrick's Day and no snow. Sure looks like an early spring!

Free men buy bonds. Slaves wear them!

LENTEN SERMONETTE

And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is Thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin; for I feared Thee, because thou art an austere man.

"Love earnestly out fear," we read, and while the Old Testament seem calculated to develop fear of Him, we come into the New Testament and find that the emphasis is placed on an Old Testament command, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God," and the greatest incentive to love Him is a revelation of His love for us. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life."

If you love God you will be glad to do anything for Him and for the world He so loved. If you are afraid to do lest you do the wrong thing, and therefore do nothing, you are like the man who laid up the pound (or talent) in a napkin.

A PRAYER: Set my heart on fire with the love of Thee, most loving Father, and then to do Thy will and to obey Thy commandments, will not be grievous to me. For to him that loveth, nothing is difficult, nothing is impossible; because love is stronger than death.—From a Pocket Prayer Book by R. S. Cushman.

Washington In Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Before and after Pearl Harbor, I wrote several stories about what women pilots were going to do in this war.

When the Civil Aeronautics Administration was forced to abandon its training of women pilots, I received a number of letters to which there was no answer. The ladies had been grounded and told to go home and tend to their knitting. Congress (through its powers of appropriation, but with recommendations from other quarters) had decreed that the CAA had better expend all its energies and funds training men who might be useful to the Army and Navy air forces.

Now comes word from the CAA that it has graduated ten girls from the "Women's Instructor Training School" at Nashville, Tenn., and that these may be "forerunners of thousands of new women instructors."

THAT has a familiar sound, but one not too much to be relied upon, in view of what has gone before. Nevertheless, in spite of all the secrecy about women aviators in the war effort, the girls in the CAP, CAA, and Air Transport Command have a remarkable record. It may be that the wall is finally breaking down.

Using the Tennessee record as a lever, the CAA is asking Congress for a supplementary appropriation of $2,500,000 to turn out 500 more women instructor pilots within six months and backlog that with 400 more in training.

In view of that, it may be well to run over the record of the ladies of the airways. Each had logged 120 hours in the air before entering the school and each had logged 165 hours or more before she was "graduated." Each qualified for a commercial pilot's license before she got her "wings" from the Nashville school, as well as qualifying as a pilot instructor. In addition, each had at least five ratings in ground school subjects (meteorology, aerial navigation, aircraft structure, aircraft engines and civil air regulations).

Flight contractors all over the south have bid for the girls' services. One of the biggest schools in Miami has offered to hire all ten graduates; Stephens College for Women in Missouri has asked for two; a Tennessee school board has come through with an offer of $2,600 a year for two; schools in El Paso, Phoenix, New Orleans and several other cities have made tempting offers.

Phoebe Orlie, veteran woman pilot and CAA education specialist in charge of the Tennessee project, points out that they can accept any of the offered jobs and still be directly in the war effort.

IN a way, this is essentially a state project but only because Tennessee has seen fit to divert its CAA funds (derived from airplane gasoline taxes) to this cause. Some other states have similar projects to a lesser degree—all under CAA supervision. If the CAA appropriation goes through, it will be a nationwide project and the training of women pilot instructors again will be on a coast-to-coast basis.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

In 1923 "the little giant" will speak in Warren this evening. He is one of the outstanding temperance orators in the country today.

At the Congressional Club banquet held last evening at the YMCA Gene Wald spoke on "Playgrounds" and urged a greater program for the Boy Scouts which had their first season last year.

Mrs. C. R. McKean, of Limestone always first in that place to clean house has the paperhangers and decorators busy at her home making the annual spring improvements.

The Moose Club has announced that it will back the Warren baseball club this summer. F. G. Dun can will run the team and is busy getting a line up signed for the summer.

At the next meeting of the Town Council a report is expected relative to the form of bridge to be built across the mill pond at the foot of Market street.

In 1933 H. A. Gordon, national camp engineer of the Boy Scouts is spending some time in the city inspecting Camp Olmstead. This is one of the finest Scout camps in the country and the local Scout Council is deservedly proud of it.

According to the Sheffield correspondent a Mayburg girl is nursing some badly frozen feet as the result of sleep walking. One of the nights when the mercury was flirting with zero she rose and clad only in her pajamas left her home and took a walk.

The Warren Players Club has selected an all male cast for the production of "Under the Oak" an adaptation from Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales".

This section was assailed by a severe electrical storm last night. Sharp flashes of lightning and heavy thunder marked the storm. It followed a spring like day.

The Kiwanis Club heard a most interesting talk yesterday by Dr. Andrew Johnson, who has been addressing the Teacher's Institute here this week. He used "The Science of Living With Men" as his topic and his remarks were highly interesting.

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — There is one thing missing in the old French Market of New Orleans as it has been re-created here for "Saratoga Trunk." You will not miss it on the screen. It's the odor—the mingling of smells that no visitor can ever forget.

Perhaps once Hollywood would have striven for that, too, not that it would matter on the screen. These are no times for olfactory realism when food is involved. To get that tantalizing combination of odors—gardenias and fresh shrimp, ripe melons and roasting coffee, rich spices and sharp cheeses, fragrant narcissus and crayfish, the sweetness of ripe bananas, and good wine and tobacco and scrubbed floors and years of people's comings and goings—would be impossible in ordinary times. An attempt at it today would be an affront to every ration card.

AND so we have a French Market where the stalls are bright with artificial flowers, plaster fish, shop-made lobsters and papier-mache watermelons and bananas. The long clusters of red peppers are real, and a few cabbages and stalks of celery and squash and white onions, but the most diligent housewife would have a hard time collecting the makings of a meal.

Today's is the scene wherein Ingrid Bergman, corseted and stayed in an 1885 street dress, first encounters Gary Cooper, the lanky drawler from Texas who is the hero. It is done to music, for Director Sam Wood — like any alert movie-maker these days—has a "band" in his production. It's the "frazz-dazz-spasm" band of Negro urchins playing on impromptu instruments.

AFTERWARD I find Gary Cooper in a positively garrulous mood. He says he likes this picture because it's neither a biography nor an action film. Having done two life stories, Sergeant York's and Lou Gehrig's, he'll probably be doing "Dr. Wassell" next, and he gets embarrassed, sort of, playing real people. Then he gets to talking about gardens and his one-act plot in Brentwood where he's putting in some corn and lima beans and other truck. Farmer Cooper talks about gardening the way he does about hunting, and that's the only subject guaranteed to make him break away from monosyllables.

Miss Bergman, who looks as beautiful and wholesome in her black wig as she does without it, tells us about her new vice, picked up in Minnesota where she recently visited.

"Chewing gum," she says.

She picked a fine time for it, with a little practicality, too, for she is the only addict I know who meticulously saves the wrapper for subsequent disposal. It may be small comfort in a bleak world, but it's something to know that your rationed shoes will never pick up Bergman's gum.

Letters to the Editor

An Open Letter to the People of Warren Co.

Saybrook, two miles west of Sheffield, Pa., is in need of a Postmaster, and a groceryman, Present acting Postmaster must retire on account of age, and years of service. This leaves a vacancy as P. M. and grocer, Mrs. Belle Lawson, owner of the building, wishes to either rent or sell it on account of her age, 83 years. If no one takes the post office, it will be discontinued in very limited time. So act quickly, and secure this paying opportunity.

Isn't there some one or family who would like to make this business venture in our small town.

Come now, we need you, and welcome. Good will, cooperation and patronage offered.

The sale of the stock must in no wise hinder the sale of the building. Address: Mrs. Belle Lawson, Ripley, N. Y. Box 224.

WAACS AT WORK

Waacs in motor transportation work know the value of moving supplies. This Waac driver cleans the motor of her ten-and-a-half truck after a day's driving at an Army post. Each Waac driver is responsible for the cleanliness and upkeep of the vehicle assigned to her. At Army posts and stations throughout the country Waac drivers are doing much of the work of driving Army vehicles, releasing able-bodied soldiers for fighting duty. Each Waac driver undergoes an intensive training course in motor transportation and maintenance at a WAAC training center before being assigned to duty.

It will involve the adjustment and repair on mowing machines, binders, etc. The second will be held at McElroy's Garage at Columbus at 2 p. m. on Friday. The meeting will involve adjustment and maintenance of tractors, plows and tillage implements. All farmers in the area are invited to attend these meetings.

Ministers Plan Lenten Activities

Reports of many proposed activities were presented at the regular meeting of the Warren County Ministerial Association held Tuesday morning in the YMCA, with 21 members and one guest present.

Rev. J. A. Davidson, presiding, called upon Rev. Bertil Edquist for the invocation and Ralph H. Wagner to tell of the go-to-church campaign among young people; also the special Lenten luncheon April 15 and the Good Friday morning breakfast, all to be sponsored by the YMCA.

Dr. H. C. Warren made announcement of Lenten sermonettes appearing daily in the Times-Mirror and Rev. J. C. Wygant told of plans which are in the making to have Dr. Felix Hanson, of Jamestown, N. Y., here the first week in April as initial guest speaker for a series to be sponsored jointly by the laymen's committee on religious education and the Ministerial Association's similar committee.

Rev. O. C. Mingleford reported for the program committee and Rev. E. P. Wroth for the Lenten program to be announced in its entirety in these columns at a later date.

Mr. Miller, from the agricultural department and local war manpower farm placement bureau, stressed urgent need for volunteers and recruits to work in harvest fields and asked the ministers to emphasize this need in their churches and Sunday schools.

After hearing encouraging reports from Rev. Arthur Schneewald and the testament distribution committee, as well as from Treasurer Ivan E. Rossell, the speaker, Dr. Davidson, was presented. His book review on Prof. Harris Franklin Roll's "Christianity" was well received.

This outstanding religious book, ripe fruits of a lifetime of research and meditation, is an apologetic inquiry into the nature and truth of Christianity, a judicious evaluation of the positions which the protestants have taken and now take in their belief and practices.

When the manuscript for this popular book was presented in 1941 among 214 others, it was awarded first prize of $15,000.

After this fine paper and a lively discussion, Rev. Harold Knapenberger voiced the closing prayer.

Young told of work done by his committee in contacting senate and house representatives in Harrisburg for support of House Bill No. 126, which, if passed, would provide an increase in salaries for teachers of the state.

WOMEN GET POSITIONS

Women trained in the Machine Shop School in the South street school building are snatched up into jobs almost as soon as they have finished. It is a surprising fact that the larger amount of them are grappled by out of town firms. Every woman who wants a place has one and local manufacturers are letting skilled help get away. Several of the women have gone to Buffalo to work in airplane plants. The school is running 24 hours every day and all classes are filled.

How well do you know your War Bonds?

1. Q. How many people own War Bonds—
—500,000? —1,000,000? —50,000,000?

A. More than 50,000,000 patriotic Americans—men of our fighting forces as well as civilians—have made their personal declaration of war against the Axis by buying War Bonds. Never before in history have so many people had a financial stake in their Government as do the holders of War Bonds!

2. Q. Why are War Bonds the world's safest investment for your money?

A. A War Bond is a "promise to pay" backed by the strongest government in the world. You can't get any better security! You can't lose your money. It can't be stolen. Even if the Bonds are lost or destroyed, you get every penny back. For every Bond is registered at the Treasury Department!

3. Q. If you put $3 into War Bonds, how much do you get back—
—$3.00? —$3.50? —$4.00?

A. For every $3 you put into War Bonds you get $4 back when the bonds mature! And how those extra dollars mount up! Look at this:
You buy a War Bond today at $18.75. In 10 years you get $25.00.
You buy a War Bond today at $37.50. In 10 years you get $50.00.
You buy a War Bond today at $75.00. In 10 years you get $100.00.

4. Q. Why does Uncle Sam want you to put money into War Bonds—
—to pay for equipping our fighting forces?
—to help keep prices down?
—to give you extra money after the war?

A. Check all three! The money you lend in War Bonds works hard—for the government and you! It helps pay for victory, helps keep prices down. And it comes back with interest!

5. Q. How does buying War Bonds keep prices down?

A. Right now, while our country's busy making war goods, lots of peacetime goods are scarce. There are fewer things to buy with your money. If people start bidding against each other to buy scarce goods, prices naturally go up. But if you buy War Bonds instead of scarce goods, you help keep prices down where they belong.

6. Q. Why will money you put in War Bonds be especially valuable to you after the war?

A. After the war there'll be more of the things you want to spend your money for. Your money will go further. And you'll have more to spend—with all the extra interest your War Bonds give you—when they mature!

7. Q. How much money should you put into War Bonds—
—10% of your pay? —12%? —15%?

A. Every loyal American ought to be putting at least 10 percent of his pay into War Bonds. And more if he can possibly do it. War Bonds make good sense—for selfish reasons as well as patriotic ones! Put every cent you can into War Bonds—and both you and your country will benefit!

8. Q. How should you buy War Bonds?

A. The Pay-Roll Savings Plan is the easiest way. All you do is sign a card. Money is put aside from your wages every pay day. When there's enough to pay for a Bond, the Bond is issued to you automatically. Get in today for your full 10 percent—or more!

Bradford Owls Lose To Farrell 34 to 28 At Sharon

Drop Off Last Period After Leading 25 to 20 At End of Third Stanza

BY HENRY E. LITTLEHALES
Philadelphia, March 17.—(P)—It's a great day, too, for a select field of eight schoolboy basketball teams still in the running for the state championship which will be determined finally Saturday, March 27.

Six scholastic aggregations—Haverhill, Gettysburg, Sayre, Clarks Summit, Bradford and Conemaugh—will play in the semifinals tonight to set the stage for four regional semi-final battles this Saturday.

The title lineup as the clock ticks move down the home stretch shapes up thus:

East—Lower Merion (District 1), Milton (District 4), probably at the Penn. Palestra; Hazleton (District 11) vs. Berwick (District 2) at Rockne Hall, Allentown.

West—Scott of North Berwick (Section 7) vs. Westinghouse of Pittsburgh (District 8), Pitt Stadium; Farrell (District 10) vs. Johnston (District 6), at Sharon.

The winning teams in each sector will fight it out for regional honors next Tuesday, with the two survivors meeting four days later for the coveted state title, which

Lower Merion captured last year for the second straight time.

Lower Merion won its district title last night by eliminating a scrappy Chester Club, 40 to 26, while Milton was annexing honors in a 55-52 scoring duel with Sayre.

The Hazleton-Berwick pairing materialized when J. Gettysburg, section 3 kingpin, bowed to Hazleton in a 24-21 struggle, and Berwick smothered Clarks Summit, of Section 12, 59-26.

Trailing at the three-quarter mark, 25 to 20, Farrell came to life to upset Bradford's taller aggregation from District 9 at Sharon, 34 to 28.

Similarly, Johnston "got hot" in the last four minutes to run a mere five-point edge all the way to a 42-26 verdict over Conemaugh Township, District 5 representative, at Johnston.

Scott and Westinghouse were idle.

Close followers of the annual court classic are predicting Scott and Farrell will clash in the western finals, with Lower Merion tackling Hazleton or Berwick for the eastern laurels. The same experts see in their crystal ball a title finale involving Lower Merion and Scott.

Health Week at the YWCA Proved Unqualified Success

The past week, which had been set aside by the physical department committee, as Health Observation Week, came to a close on Saturday. The committee in charge felt that the enterprise had been worthwhile and plan to conduct a similar week next year.

Events that took place during the week were the City-Wide Road Flare Tournament for juniors and seniors. The Senior event was won by "Lunk" Lunquist who sunk 22 out of 25 to take the championship. Chas. McLean who had held the lead up to Saturday with 19 had to be satisfied with second place. Bob Peterson came in third after making 16 out of the 25.

The Junior event was won by Gail Nelson who swished 12 out of 15 through the hoop, to take the class "C" division title. Second and third places were taken over by Allan McNally and Jim Krespan who flipped 11 and 10 in respectively. The class "B" title was annexed by Don Anderson who came through with 9 out of 15.

Second place resulted in a tie between Bob Pascuzzi and Don Kuhre with 8 each. For third place a quadruple tie resulted between Phil Calosino, Dick Scalise, Wayne Fitzgerald, and Fred Weigle all of whom had 7. Class "A" championship fell to "Bud" Wilson with 7 out of the 15, while "Benny" Newman was second with 6 and "Johnny" Hanna third with 4.

A health jamboree was held on Friday evening with 50 boys in attendance. A health picture was shown, pamphlets on "Safety" passed out, and used as a basis for a talk by Homer Fleming, director of physical education, at Beatty Junior High School.

"Nick" DeSteffano was awarded a year's membership to the local "Y" as a reward for his efforts on winning the Gray-Y Health Poster Contest. The evening came to a conclusion with the showing of the motion picture of the 1936 Olympic gymnastic competition held in Berlin, Germany.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, March 17.—(P)—The double-barrelled basketball show that starts tomorrow in the Garden has been the subject of a bit of blasting for "commercialism," but from what we hear, most of the lucrative invitation tourney instead of the N. C. A. A. event . . . on the other hand, Prof. Philip O. Badger, the N. C. A. A. prexy, says his organization would just as soon hold its tournament in college gyms but occasionally it has to bid for big gates so as to put some cash in the treasury . . . One "inside" story heard hereabouts to explain the absence of Illinois is that the Illini don't like the idea of staying around two extra days for the Red Cross game.

Home Town Stuff—From the Charleston, S. C., navy headquarters, Neale Patrick, former Raleigh Sports Editor, drops a line to ask if any place can beat his home town of Gastonia, N. C., for turning out major league ball players on American Legion junior teams . . . ex-senator Buddy Lewis, now flying army transport planes, and Frank Melton, who hasn't joined the Dodgers yet, played on the 1933 Gastonia team and Crach Davis of the Athletics and Howard Moss, Giants' rookie, were Gaston teammates in 1935.

Today's Guest Star—Banjo Smith, Columbia (SC) Record: "New York legislature offered bill to allow school boys 30 days off each year to fish . . . gad: born 30 years too soon again."

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then you'll feel sour, sick and the world looks lousy.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get that 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10¢ and 25¢.

Positions on Mareth Line Are Blasted

At least three motor barges proceeding from Sicily to Tunisia were hit and left ablaze in the attack on the convoy.

Planes rising from the dry, sandy stretches of the western desert continued the softening up process of Rommel's positions in the Mareth Line, the communice said. Fighter bombers and medium bombers, escorted by fighters, carried the aerial assault to the Germans and Italians.

Superior formations of Allied aircraft continued a night and day offensive as both the Allied and Axis armies prepared for the impending battle.

American Flying Fortresses were used against the barge convoy of six or seven vessels and pilots reported that flames shot up 300 feet from the three that were hit. Lightnings provided fighter escort for the big craft.

British Bliseys attacked the Gabes landing ground and strung high explosives along the runways. The Bliseys also tore up tracks between Gabes and Sfax along which equipment moves south of the Mareth line.

The British patrol successes were near Medjez-El-Bab in northern Tunisia.

German artillery mounted in the Mareth Line attempted to hamper Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's concentration of Eighth Army assault groups by sporadic shelling of the Medenine plain from hidden emplacements in the hills.

The tank contact in the center was made three miles north of Gafsa.

WIFE CHARGED WITH SLAYING HER HUSBAND

Philadelphia, March 17.—(P)—A 52-year-old navy yard worker was stabbed to death in his home last night and his wife was summoned for a hearing before a police magistrate today on a charge of homicide.

Detective Thomas Lennon said the victim, Thomas Murray, was stabbed through the heart with a six-inch paring knife in a room in which his wife, Catherine, 48, an elevator operator in Dobbins Vocational School, had been paring potatoes for supper.

While the navy was thus reporting on recent action, Elmer Davis, director of war information, told a press conference that only five Japanese of 15,000 escaped death or capture in the battle of the Bismarck Sea March 2, when 22 Japanese warships and other vessels were destroyed by Allied air night.

The communique reflected a quickening tempo of offensive action at both ends of the Pacific battle line stretching from the Solomons in the south to Kiska at the western end of the Aleutians archipelago in the north.

Whether this speed-up in attack might foreshadow heavier actions designed to wrest strategic positions from enemy possession was a subject of speculation in usually well informed quarters here, but was without official comment.

Ruml Plan Supporters Are Hopeful

The Ruml plan, embraced in a bill by Rep. Carlson (R-Kes), includes a 20 per cent withholding levy similar to that in the committee bill. Both would be effective July 1. The withholding would not be an additional tax, but simply a collection device and does not add to the present tax liability.

AMERICANS BETRAY THEIR INEXPERIENCE

Washington, March 17.—(P)—OWI Director Elmer Davis said today American troops in North Africa betrayed their inexperience by not leaving mine fields to hamper German Marshal Rommel's pursuing soldiers in the recent retreat.

"Our people didn't do much in the way of leaving mine fields behind them, which is a specialty of Rommel," Davis told a press conference.

"This was due entirely to the difference in experience between his veteran troops and our forces in action for the first time. If it is necessary, God forbid, that we retreat again, that matter will be taken care of."

Post-war planning also came up in the senate with introduction by President Pro Tempore Charles H. Ealy (R-Somerset) of an administration bill to amend the state constitution and permit a $50,000,000 bond issue for public works after the war. Ealy also offered a measure for a $50,000,000 bond issue to retire outstanding bonds of the General State Authority, the commonwealth's building agency.

Despite heated Democratic opposition, the senate Republican majority passed 25-14 and sent to the house a bill to remove Democratic Utility Commissioner Richard J. Beamish from office when his term expires March 31.

Beamish's commission provides that if he serves until his successor is appointed and qualified, "this bill to remove him, Democrats claim, is aimed at by-passing the senate and permitting an interim appointment by Governor Martin after adjournment of the legislature."

The house GOP-controlled appropriations committee, recommended a $50,000 deficiency allotment to operate Democratic Utility General F. Clair Ross' department during March, delaying action on his request for $100,000 at $120,000 for April and May pending completion of an inquiry into the department. The committee released for floor action a bill giving other departments $7,400,000 in deficiency allotments.

YOUNGVILLE NEWS

Production based on Robert Louis Stevenson's book Treasure Island. The music was written by Grant Schoeder and the dramatization was arranged by Paynter, the same writer who gave to us the dramatization of Tom Sawyer, which was so popular when presented as an operetta last season by the Music department of Youngville school.

One reason for the great success of Tom Sawyer was the careful selection of the cast. The same care has been used in the selection of the large cast of sixteen characters. There will be a chorus, well trained.

The operetta is in three acts. The first is at the sea side inn of Mrs. Hawkins. The second act is aboard a ship and the third is on an island where is found the treasure.

Much time and effort has been spent in staging, costumes and lighting effects. There is little doubt that this will be one of the best musical productions ever put on by the Music Department of the Youngville School. The Booster Club are taking charge of the ticket sale and seats may be reserved at the Jones Pharmacy without extra expense.

Isolation Island

Chapter 12

AS THE dinghy rode in on a gently rolling surf Landa felt a pleasant calmness take possession of her. The sun had sunk behind the bulk of the island and was flooding the sea with an orange glow. Jim was throwing his muscular arms and shoulders against the oars and smiling at her as she swayed with the easy rhythm of the small boat.

"Have fun today?" he asked quietly.

Landa nodded smilingly. At the moment she felt too full of quiet contentment to break the silence of the scene with words. More than anything else right now she wanted to just sit there in this little boat letting the breeze slide soft fingers through her hair. She felt a warm sense of security and peacefulness flow through her whenever she was with Jim Blair. A feeling that made her wish time would stop and this one brief instant could go on into eternity. That feeling was in her heart now and yet instinctively she felt she must fight against it. She loved Don, had always loved him and knew deep down that she would soon be his wife. Suddenly she saw ahead the tall slender figure of a man in white emerge from the trees and run to the beach. He was waving his arms at them.

"There's Don," Landa cried. Jim let his oars drift to the side of the boat for an instant while he turned to look. He hallooed and waved back.

When the boat shot through the rolling surf and buried its bow in the soft sand Don came up smiling like a small boy. "Well, don't keep me waiting, did you find it?" he asked.

"We sure did!" Jim said as he took Landa's hand and helped her to the beach.

"That's great! I just had a feeling all day today that Landa would bring you luck. She always has me!"

Landa kissed Don lightly on the cheek. "None of your Irish blarney, young man," she laughed.

"I was so sure that today would be the big day that the padre and I planned a little celebration to-night at the castle," Don grinned.

"I'll come if your father promises not to sing," Jim said jokingly.

Don had driven down in the carriage so the three climbed in and rode slowly up the winding, sandy road laughing and talking in high spirits.

They had dinner in the high vaulted dining room with its grey stone walls hung with rich colored tapestries. A circular, wrought-iron chandelier hung with heavy chains and flickering with dozens of candles swung from the ceiling. Mike O'Shanessy was full of Irish whiskey and Irish stories. He laughed frequently, a booming laugh that resounded through the dim halls of the castle. After the servants had swept away the last of the dishes he turned his florid, smiling face to Jim Blair.

"Blair, you're an engineer; come to my study with me and I'll show you the plans I have for finishing O'Shanessy Castle." And then to Landa he said, "I'm sure you do too." Landa said a little anxiously, and then to cover her quick embarrassment she added, "That is, not until I've had a chance at some under water painting."

O'Shanessy caught the urgent tone in her voice. A dark look for an instant seemed to hover over his heavy features like a passing shadow.
